INTERROGATORY 3. If you have converted any of your money or property, or money or property of any other person, as inquired of you, then state when the same was so converted or invested, and the kind and amount and value thereof.

STATE OF INDIANA,
BROWN County, } ss:

Henry Tracy, being duly sworn, say, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the foregoing statement contains a true, full and complete list of all property held or belonging to me, and dogs owned, kept or harbored by me, on the first day of April, including all personal property, appertaining to merchandising, whether held in actual possession or only having been purchased with a view to possession or profit, and all personal property appertaining to manufacturing, and all manufactured articles, whether on hand or owned by me. In all cases where I have been unable to exhibit certain classes of property to the Assessor, such property has been fully and fairly described, and its true condition and value represented. That I have in no case sought to mislead the Assessor, as to either quantity or quality or value of property, and that the deductions claimed from credits are bona fide debts for a consideration received and do not consist in any part in bonds, notes or obligations of any kind given to any insurance company or account of premium or policies, nor on account of any unpaid subscription to any literary, scientific or charitable institution or society, nor on account of any subscription to, or indebtedness payable on capital stock of any company, whether incorporated or unincorporated; and I further swear that since the first day of April of last year, I have not directly or indirectly, converted or exchanged any of my property temporarily, for the purpose of evading the assessment thereof for taxes, into non-taxable property, or securities of any kind.

I further swear, that I have to the best of my knowledge and judgment valued said property at its true cash value, by which I mean the usual selling price, being the price which could be obtained for said property at private sale, and not at forced or auction sale.

DAY 3

BREAKFAST

FROZEN HASH-BROWN POTATOES

Frozen hash-brown potatoes are frozen diced potatoes. Sometimes they come as patties. Look for hash-browns that contain potatoes only, or potatoes with dextrose (sugar) but no oil (see list of acceptable packaged products on pages 100-114).

SERVINGS: 1

COOKING TIME: 20-25 MINUTES

1 package frozen hash-browns (use as many as you desire)

Place the frozen patties in a dry nonstick skillet or griddle. Cook over medium-to-high heat for 15 minutes, then turn and cook 10 minutes on the second side, until brown. Cover with ketchup, barbecue sauce, or other acceptable topping (see staples, pages 216-217).

LUNCH

QUICK PASTA SALAD

This dish is very adaptable. It can be served hot or cold and can be different every time you serve it depending on the vegetables you choose.

SERVINGS: 2
PREPARATION TIME: 10 MINUTES
COOKING TIME: 10 MINUTES

1 cup uncooked whole wheat or spinach elbow macaroni, shells, or spirals
1/4 to 1/2 cup low-sodium, oil-free salad dressing
1 1/2 cups chopped vegetables (scallions, green or red peppers, broccoli, celery, carrots, pimientos—alone or in any combination you want)

Cook the macaroni in boiling water until just tender, 8 to 10 minutes. Mix with the vegetables, add dressing, and toss to coat.

WILLIAM B. AND ELIZABETH ALEXANDER WITH DAUGHTER MARTHA CATHERN

William B. Alexander was born in Fayette County, Kentucky, September 3, 1806. He came as a young man to this County in September of 1826 with his new wife, Elizabeth Irvin, also born in Kentucky. He was soon managing his father's farm. William purchased and sold lots of land in and near Benton Township.

William B. and Elizabeth Alexander

William and Elizabeth's life was spent on what became known as the Alexander strip some seven miles northeast of Bloomington. William and Elizabeth were active members in the Mount Gilead Christian Church and likewise raised their family there. All their children were born in Monroe County.

My grandmother, Martha Cathern, their seventh child, was born in 1842 and married her friend and neighbor Lewis G. Spriggs the son of pioneer Dr. Jesse S. and Susan Spriggs who also attended the Mount Gilead Christian Church.

Lewis and Martha moved with their family to Ellettsville where my father William Lewis was born in 1876.

In 1882 the fields of heavy yields and lots of farm land tales convinced my grandfather Lewis to go West. With covered wagon and family all loaded and other relatives and friends with their wagons loaded, they all began their long trip. Little Willy (my father) often told of walking and playing all the way to Kansas as the wagons went too slow for his play as a six year old boy. He never spoke of ever getting tired.

The oldest daughter Srepta had just married to Robert Couk in Monroe County and was left behind to live with husband. Many tears were shed in leaving, but all was well and the wagon train was well on the way when a horse and buggy pulled up beside my grandfather's wagon and there was Srepta and her new husband. Robert told them to take Srepta because he couldn't stand any more of her bawling and that he would get a good team and wagon and catch them all later, which he did.

It was on this trip that Lewis and his brother Elias and their families changed their name from Spriggs back to the original name Sprague.

The families began to drop off after they crossed the Mississippi and got further into Missouri, as that is where most of the wagon train were going. Lewis and Martha with family continued on into Kansas and had to stop for some time because Martha was to give birth to her seventh child, a son. Later settling in southeast Kansas.

Martha missed her family back in Indiana and many letters followed, but I have nothing to show that Martha ever got to return to her beloved State of Indiana.

On September 23, 1892, Martha received word of the passing of her father, William Brewster Alexander. He was laid to rest by her mother Elizabeth who had passed away in 1869. Both parents are buried in the Mount Gilead Churchyard Cemetery.

In 1979 and many times since, I had the thought of going to my grandparents' birth state and made me wonder why they ever left.

Dear Shirley,

I was pleased to get all this information about the Trues line. We had never known anything about them. Charity Trues was my great grandmother so guess that makes us 3rd Cousins.

My father, William Simons, had given me all he knew about the Spragues. He knew Jesse Stoneman Sprague was his mother's grandfather, but didn't know he was a country doctor.

My Grandmother Simons was Rheasylvia Minnetta Hadue Sprague, daughter of Charity Trues & Elias C. Sprague. Her sister was Mary Etta Sprague who married someone Hines. She lived in Bloomington, Ind. I remember taking my Grandmother

Dear Mrs Hannaford,

I was given your name
by Carol Duvall of Coffeyville, Ks.
She said you might know something about the Truex line.

My grandmother on my father's side was of the Sprague & Truex line. Her father was Elias Conger Sprague who married Charity Truex. I have found out quite a bit about the Sprague
but not much about the Truex.

Carol Duvall just returned from reunions in Indiana and shared with me some information she found while there. She says you are planning to move soon to Ft. Wayne. I hope I have reached you before you move.

I would appreciate any thing you can tell me about the Truex line.

Sincerely
Elizabeth Clark

to visit them twice, once when I was four years old in 1928 & again in 1935.

She had a daughter, Annie, who was married to Oliver Duwall. I think, Nettie, my grandmother, & her sister Mary Etta, were all there was.

I made contact with Carol Duwall by answering an ad she had placed in the Genealogical Helper. She knew much more about the Spragues than I had known. She went to several reunions in Ind. This summer or fall and from a lady she knew in Brown Co. who worked at the Court house, found out more about my grand~~father~~^{mother} than we had ever known.

It seems that my grandmother had a baby before she was married. We never knew that & my father & his brothers & sisters wouldn't have believed it. But the court papers shew it to be true. This was in 1882 in Brown Co. She would have lacked a few days being 17. They took this man to court, Justice of Peace. Then they moved to Mo. They married her off to Wm. Riley Simons my grandfather, who died when my father was 12 yrs. old.

Wm. Riley Simons' 2nd wife had recently died & he married my grandmother. The 2nd wife was a cousin to my grandmother.

His first marriage had one son, Sam, the 2nd marriage had 3 children Ed, who was adopted by his aunt & uncle named Berry & Lee, who would have been 5 yrs old when he married the 3rd time & was always considered a part of our family. The 3rd child died as an infant.

There were 9 children by 4 the third marriage - 2 died as infants. All of them have died now.

We knew my grandmother's parents lived in Dora, Mo.
and that she had a brother named Valley, because he was born on Valentines Day.
We never knew anything more about him. We had no idea he was her son.
We don't know if he married or what became of him.

We have visited Dora and found the cemetery and found Charity's grave, but if Elias was buried there, guess he had no headstone.
They died in 1907 & 1908.

Carol Duvall had worked up a book of Dr. Jesse Stoneman Sprague or Spriggs' Journal.
He had kept sort of a diary besides his bookkeeping of his office calls.

I am sending you a copy of several pages out of his Journal. He mentions Johnston C. Trembly several times and his father Benjamin was a ~~constant~~ customer of Jesse.

The Journal also tells of their move to Mo. However they only got as far as Brumett Creek in Monroe Co. near Bloomington.

It also mentions the time they went to Canada. One of his sons, Lewis, had been in the Civil War, and was very sick. So Elias C. ^{Sprigg} Wm. P. Spriggs, and William W. Truex left on the cars for Canada in Dec. 1864. In Feb. 1865 he took Charity & Mary Ettie to Canada where a few days later, my grandmother was born. I knew she was born in Canada and when I asked my father years ago, why she was born in Canada, he said he thought it was to get away from the Civil War.

My Grandfather Simons was in the Civil War on the Union side. I have a grandfather on my mother's side that was a Confederate.

I thank you very much for sending the papers. If you know more of the trip to Canada, I would love to know.

Thanks again,
Elizabeth Clark

I found the letter in my grandmother's things after her daughters died. It was written on tablet paper and very brittle - just falling apart. Some of the words were impossible to read.

Dear Shirley,

Thanks so much for the information the Truex family. I am sending you copies of my family group sheets. I am sending copies of the info you provided me to my dad Jim Simons and to his brother Harold. They both live in Sun City AZ now and will be interested. I started on the family's genealogy in 1975 but then set it aside until just this year. Your info was very helpful.

After rereading the passage in Dr Jesse Stoneman Sprague's journal which I had gotten from Carol Duvall years ago I located Parkhill Station in Canada. Now my question is why did Elias and Charity and William and Melissa go to Parkhill Station. Did someone have relatives there?

I am in contact through the Internet with a man who has information on the Sam line. This is Catherine Sam Sprague's line who married Benjamin Truex. When I get his family group sheets, Etc I will pass them on.

I would like to have copies of the probate record for Henry Truex's estate and for Mary Sinclair and the Brown Co will for Salome Truex. Also your family groupsheets from Coen Clark forward.

I guess I find it surprising that Elias and Charity only had the two children Mary Etta and my Great grandmother Minnetta. I've wondered who Elias Conger is that my Elias Conger Sprague was named after. The 1830 Monroe Co Ohio Adams Twp census shows 3 Elias Congers but I don't know the connection if any.

Anyway thanks so much. You filled in a lot of gaps.

Dear Shirley,

I have some additional information for you concerning Valley Sprague.

I wrote Carol Duvall telling her what you had written me. She went to the Parsons State Hospital in Parsons. She had a permit, so was allowed to look at the records.

His record, Valley Sprague, single,

26 yrs old when admitted -

Baptist 4-28-1906

Sane - volunteered

B. Indiana 1880 if 26 yrs old when admitted

D. 11-15-1944 - buried in

State Cemetery # 451

No parents or relatives listed
Had illness 14 yrs before admittance Had grand mall (more serious) and petit mall (less serious) and what he had most of the time. Died of myocarditis inflammation of heart

He entered from Cowley Co. Kan.
Dora, Mo. is in NE corner of Ozark Co. and Cowley Co. Ks. is west 2 counties over from Coffeyville.

I'm pretty sure that Valley lived at home until his g-parents died in 1907 & 08.
And I thought it was after that he visited Springdale.
Guess we will never know for sure.

I wonder why they put people in institutions for having epilepsy. Guess they didn't have medicines for that in 1906. It is an electrical mis-firing. Nothing to do with sanity as I understand it.

Joe had to have spent so many years in an institution.
But he listed no relatives.

It is hard to believe my grandmother would have sent him off on his own & not tell him she was his mother. But I guess it was so in-grained in her to never tell and keep it a deep dark secret at all costs. She had lost her husband in 1908 & both parents. Her two oldest children were married by then, I think. She had a struggle to take care of the rest. The youngest was born in 1905. A sad story.

Carol's nephew, Don Sprague, had just died of lung cancer Feb. 2nd. I didn't know that when I wrote.

Hope you and family are fine. Have had lots of winter weather. We had a few flurries today, after some warm weather last week.

Thanks for all the help you have given me.

Sincerely,
Betty Clack

Feb. 8, 1994

Dear Shirley,

Thanks for the trouble you have gone to to look for records of Valley. We don't know for sure, but that could possibly be Valley.

I hate to hear that he had to live his life in a institution. I never heard that he had epilepsy. Today they could give him medicines and he could have lived a nearly normal life. But that may be why the family never heard from him again.

I have a letter that I am sending you that he wrote to my grandmother in 1905. It didn't sound as if he knew she was his real came to this country. It is mother. Don't know if he ever found out or not.

After Elias & Charity died in 1907 & 1908, he went to Springdale to visit. I don't guess she told him she was his mother. He stayed a short while in Rogers, Ark. and then left.
They never heard from him again. Maybe he went to Kan. looking for his uncle.
I am writing Carol Duvall to see if she ever heard anymore that could give us a clue. He mentioned hearing from an uncle Will Sprague.
He lived in Bloomington, I think.
Also my grandmother's sister,
Mary ^{Sprague} Jones lived in Bloomington.

Hope the bad weather is about gone. Sorry about your car.
Thanks for the help. ^{as ever,} Elizabeth

Dear Shirley,

I really do appreciate all the information you sent. I always wondered why we didn't have as many relatives as so many people do. Because of my grandmother's scandal, she chose not to keep in touch with anyone other than her parents & supposedly her brother, Valley. Also her sister, Mary Etta Hines, and daughter, Anna & Oliver Devar.

The story about why they went to Canada in 1865 is interesting. My grandmother always said she was born in Middlesex, Canada. I'm sure other families have sad stories concerning the Civil War, on both sides. Even now, over 100 years later, some people still have strong feelings.

Back to 1586, is a long way back. It is fascinating why people came to this country. It is nice to know something about them. I knew the Dutch settled New York. Maybe the Indians decided they should have gotten more money for N. York & thus murdered, Phillipe.

We had traced my husband's Clack family back to 1679 when the first Clack came over from England.

I'm sending you some pictures of our side of the Sprague - Trexler family.

We have four grown children, three are married, one in Orlando, Florida, two here, & a daughter in Ok. City.

My husband is retired from, first, Manager of local Long Bell Lumber Co. Then worked 22 years as Bldg Inspector for City of Pryor. He had an operation for prostate cancer a year ago. I had surgery in Feb. and shingles most of the summer.

Thank you so much for sending all this to me.

It would be nice to know what became of Valley and if he married and had any children. I guess his name was Valentine Sprague. I don't know if he remained in Dora, Mo. or not. It is really a very small community, not too far from Mt. Grove where my grandmother & grandfather lived until 1903 when they moved to Springdale, Ark. I lived there until after I was married & we moved away in 1950.

Thanks again,
Elizabeth Clark

The sheriff's department reported a possible homicide at the Meadows Trailer Court on Free Road north of Anderson Saturday afternoon. Sheriff's officials identified the victim as Loyd A. Breese, 68. They also reported that Breese's car was found last Sunday abandoned.

Madison County Coroner Lonnie Weston reported Breese had been dead a week to eight days before the body was found. He said cause of death was severe head injuries caused by a blunt instrument.

Sheriff's officials still are investigating the case, and evidence has been taken by the sheriff's department.

BODY DISCOVERED — The body of Loyd A. Breese, 68, lot 4 of Meadows trailer court was discovered at his home by MCPD Captain Mark Fox. MCPD Lieutenant Pete Dodd (pictured) stands near the spot in the Breese home where the body was found.

CHINESE DRESSING

YIELD: 2 CUPS (16 SERVINGS)

minced cilantro

2 teaspoons finely minced onion

4 teaspoons Dijon mustard

6 tablespoons plus 2 teaspoons

2 cups water

Thomas Carter II (1672-1733) of Corotoman; the picture was reproduced from one appearing in "The Descendants of Captain Thomas Carter" through the courtesy of the Virginia State Library, Richmond, Virginia.

I in his will uses the term relation when referring to Thomas Carter II. Thomas Carter I had a son named John. This name and to a less extent, Robert, are almost frequent among the immediate descendants of Thomas Carter I as among the descendants of Colonel John Carter. All known facts indicate that they were a family group and acted as such. It is significant, however, that the family of Thomas Carter I by its 17th century blood tie with the Dale and Skipwith families of England, were allied at an early date with well established gentry. This was the first marriage of the Virginia Carters with a family of great social position and of influential political connection. Therefore it was an historic one for the family.

The line of Thomas Carter was not one of vast wealth or of great political power. That they were more wealthy than the average planter is well established however—(see the records of Lancaster County). In service to Lancaster County, the mother county of the Carters, they had few rivals.

Descendants of Thomas Carter I were numerously represented on the county court and on the church vestry. Every generation saw members of this family render able service in these bodies. The old records often show the title, "Gentleman," following their names. Only those of the best social position were accorded such a designation. From 1738 to 1756 all four Carters on the vestry of St. Mary's Parish were of this family: Joseph, Dale, Henry and Charles Carter. Another interesting fact is the following: The father-in-law of Captain Thomas Carter I, Major Edward Dale, was an agent for the Northern Neck Proprietary. It is but reasonable to believe, in the light of other family associations, that it was this man who first familiarized the family with the possibility for control of huge tracts of land in the Northern Neck. The leasing of the Lord Proprietor's land was a duty of his agent. Often he could and did lease land to anyone he saw fit.

Some of the families with whom descendants of Captain Thomas Carter I have married were: Brent, Williamso

This form to be filled out in full if information can be obtained, signed by the undertaker and applicant, and delivered to the superintendent with fees before the grave will be opened.

SALADS, DRESSINGS, CONDIMENTS, AND STARTERS

You will see from the number of recipes in this section that you can practically live on salads. They're perfect for all the beautiful fresh vegetables in the market, as well as for many leftovers, especially grains and beans. There are plenty of substantial salads to choose from here: bean salads like the French Lentil Salad (page 423), or the White Bean Salad (page 422); salads made from grains, like the Rice Salad with Apricots and Currants (page 419) or the Tabbouleh (page 419). Potato salad is also filling and delicious, and there are plenty to choose from here. These substantial salads can easily serve as main dishes. The chutneys make nice accompaniments for these and for curries.

More delicate combinations that would make nice starters, light lunches, or side dishes, are also plentiful here. They are colorful and bursting with the fresh, vibrant flavors of herbs and fresh produce. All of the recipes should make your mouth water.

The pureed bean and vegetable spreads—Hummus (page 411), Eggplant Puree (page 411), and Green Pea "Guacamole" (page 444)—are delicious spread on bread and accompany these salads beautifully. They also make nice hors d'oeuvres as dips or served with bread or crackers.

You will see here that oil is not essential for a good salad. The dressings are lively ones based on tasty vinegars, lemon juice, lime juice, tomato juice, and orange juice. They combine brilliantly with the ingredients in the salads to bring out their flavors in the most delicious ways.

TOMATO-HERB DRESSING

about 1 1/3 cups

- 6 ounces (1 small can) tomato or V-8 juice
- 1/4 cup apple cider vinegar
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 1 tablespoon fresh chopped chives
- 1 tablespoon fresh minced parsley
- 1 large clove garlic, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon dried basil or 1 tablespoon fresh minced basil
- 1/8 teaspoon cayenne, or to taste

In a bowl or jar, combine all the dressing ingredients, whisking or shaking them to blend them well.

VARIATION: For a thicker dressing, try adding about 4 ounces of tofu (soybean curd), creaming the ingredients together in a blender or food processor. This would increase the yield to about 2 cups.

CREAMY VINAIGRETTE

about 1 1/4 cups

- 2/3 cup plain low-fat yogurt
- 1/3 cup apple cider vinegar
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- 1 very large clove garlic, crushed
- 1 tablespoon reduced-sodium soy sauce (optional)
- 1/4 teaspoon dried dillweed

Combine all the vinaigrette ingredients in a bowl or jar with a tight-fitting lid, whisking or shaking them to blend them well.
